Application for Judicial Nominating Commission – Emily Landry

I am submitting the attached application for the Judicial Nominating Commission due to my desire to serve this body that serves as a vital component in preserving the integrity of the Tennessee judiciary. As a practicing trial lawyer, I have a profound appreciation for the power of the judiciary, and I have observed first-hand the importance of the thorough vetting process that the Commission spearheads when filling open judicial vacancies. It is critical to the successful operation of the judicial system, as well as litigants' and the general public's perception of the dignity of that system, that those vacancies are filled by highly-qualified and invested candidates.

Furthermore, throughout my career I have dedicated significant effort in service to the Tennessee Bar, through involvement and leadership roles with both the Memphis and Tennessee Bar Associations. As a result, I have been privileged to develop relationships with attorneys across the state, which I believe will facilitate my evaluation of potential judicial appointees. I would be honored to dedicate my time and expertise to supporting our current system of evaluating and recommending prospective candidates. Thank you sincerely for your consideration of my application.
